Bass Louie[®]

BASS LOUIE is scarred from his battles with polluters and poachers, but he won't give up in his fight to protect our rivers and lakes! He wants everyone to practice catch and release. He's angry about the destruction of wetlands and waterways, needless pollution.

CINDY

CINDY is Bass Louie's contact with people. Cindy carries the mission of conservation and environmental responsibility to her friends. Cindy is also the spokesperson for the storyline. She shows compassion for all living creatures and is the first to stand up to polluters and poachers.

FAT CHANCE

FAT CHANCE is Cindy's father. He is a nay-sayer and always chides Cindy for her lofty ideas and do-good attitude. In the end Cindy always prevails and Fat Chance always recognizes that she is right and that he should have listened to her in the first place.

LAB COAT LARRY

LAB COAT LARRY is the team's scientist. Larry is pretty cool and can always figure out what is wrong with the rivers, lakes and streams, and where the pollution is coming from. On top of that he can usually come up with a good solution to any problem too.

OMNI

OMNI is an eagle. He sees all and knows all. Bass Louie and Cindy carry their message to distant places through Omni's ability to fly. Omni is always alerting them to problems or environmentally challenging events.

EPIPHANY

EPIPHANY is a Trinidad Guppy. He provides the inspiration for tomorrow, and the revelations on how to solve some of the difficult problems and challenges that Bass Louie, Cindy, and Omni confront.
